Dear Class of 2026/2027, we can't wait to meet you at your induction course – the essential start of your journey at the First Faculty of Medicine, Charles University. Let's make it a wonderful, memorable experience, that will set the tone for your time with us. During the event you will:

- get overview of the most important first-year subjects (by both your professors and senior students),
- learn about the organisation of your studies, how to navigate them and avoid the pitfalls – ensuring a smooth transition into academic life,
- take basic Life Support crash course at the Simulation Centre,
- get study-life balance hacks from experienced students,
- enjoy sports and other team building activities,
- try fun Czech language lessons to help you navigate life in our country with confidence and humor,
- explore the faculty's largest departments and the beautiful surroundings of Prague City Centre,
- gain 3 credits towards your first year of studies with us.

Participation fee supports accommodation, catering, and the social programme.
