

Buying credit via WebPay on the user's account on the MyQ Web Interface

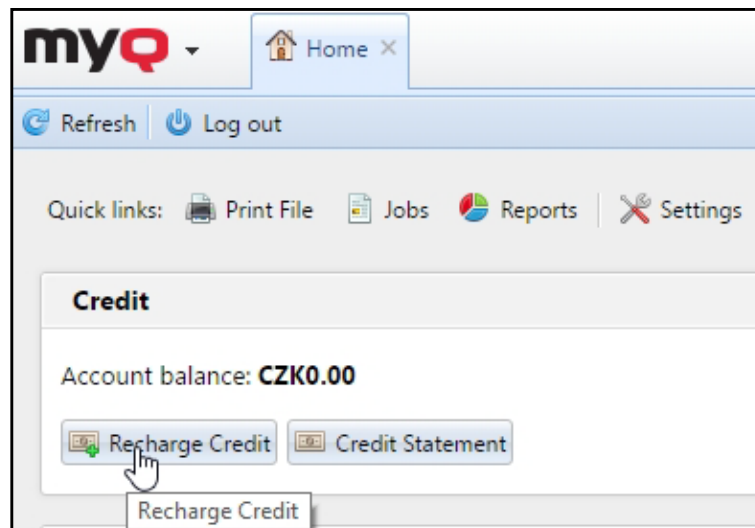

First of all, the user needs to log in to his or her account on the MyQ Web Interface on the link <https://myq.lf1.cuni.cz/en>.

The image shows the login page of the MyQ Web Interface. At the top left is the logo 'myQ popcorn'. Below it is a language selection dropdown menu currently set to 'English (United States)'. Underneath are two input fields: the first contains the username 'Kohei' and the second is a password field with masked characters '.....'. At the bottom center is a yellow 'Login' button with a key icon.

To recharge the credit there, the user has to click Recharge credit under Credit. The Recharge credit dialog appears.

The image shows a screenshot of the MyQ Web Interface. At the top is the 'myQ' logo and a 'Home' button. Below that are 'Refresh' and 'Log out' buttons. A 'Quick links' section contains icons for 'Print File', 'Jobs', 'Reports', and 'Settings'. The main content area is titled 'Credit' and shows 'Account balance: CZK0.00'. Below this are two buttons: 'Recharge Credit' and 'Credit Statement'. A mouse cursor is pointing at the 'Recharge Credit' button, and a tooltip with the text 'Recharge Credit' is visible below it.

In the dialog box, the user has to select the WebPay payment provider, enter the amount of credit that he or she wants to buy, and then click Recharge Credit. Minimum amount for recharging via WebPay is 10 CZK.

The image shows a 'Recharge Credit' dialog box. At the top left is the title 'Recharge Credit' and a close button 'X'. Below the title, it shows 'Account balance: CZK20.000'. The 'Payment provider' is set to 'WebPay' in a dropdown menu. The 'Enter amount' field is set to 'CZK 10.000'. At the bottom are two buttons: a green 'Recharge Credit' button and a red 'Close' button.
